Art Unit: 2823

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-19 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-17 of U.S. Patent No. 6670207. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the instant claims are generic to those of the patent. See MPEP 806.04(i).

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-7,11,12,13,14,15 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Turnbull et al.

Turnbull et al discloses plural radiation emitters 16 which emit radiation of different wavelengths (col.12, lines 46+) which are necessarily connected to leads to enable power to be applied to the LED's and a polymer matrix 18 made integral with divergent Fresnel lens 27 and secondary lenses 28 and 29 (col.11, lines 49-58 and col.13, lines 29-63). The reference discloses inclusion of a reflective cup (not shown) about the periphery of the lens (col.11, lines 17-25). The assembly inherently includes a surface which can be adhesively attached to a vehicle map assembly as a mechanism of attachment.

Claims 8,9,16 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Turnbull et al as applied to claims 1-6,11,12,13 above, and further in view of Gardner et al.

Turnbull et al does not disclose the shape of the reflective cup.

Gardner et al discloses that determination of the shape of a reflective cup for an LED device is determined through routine optimization to obtain a desired light distribution emitting from the LED (col.4, lines 58-65). One of ordinary skill in the art would have been led the recited shapes of the reflective cup through routine optimization as disclosed by Gardner et al.

Claims 10 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Turnbull et al as applied to claims 1-6,11,12,13 above, and further in view of the following comments.

Turnbull et al does not disclose placing the secondary lens on a reflective cup opposite the LED.

The examiner takes official notice that the specific cup and lens arrangement of claims 9 and 16 associated with LED devices was known prior to applicant's invention. It would have been within the scope of one of ordinary skill in the art to combine the known teachings with those of Turnbull et al in view of the disclosure at column 13, lines 52-63 that device of Turnbull et al can be combined with various secondary optical elements according to desired performance characteristics.
